

Externship in Emotionally Focused Therapy with George Faller

EFT Trainer, Supervisor and Certified Counselor, AAMFT Supervisor, LMFT (NY)

In this four-day Externship, participants will learn through a combination of lectures, videotapes, observation of live interviews, and role-play exercises. Upon completion of this course, participants will:

- Identify the basic stages and steps of Emotionally Focused Therapy
- See marital distress from an attachment perspective
- Help couples recognize and deescalate problematic patterns of interaction
- Help couples understand the underlying attachment needs that drive these negative patterns
- Help couples create and restore the emotional bond between them
- Help couples repair attachment injuries, fostering healing within and between the couple

EFT Externships and Core Skills trainings are designed for mental health professionals. Registrants will be required to declare their professional designation with registration.
